WHO ARE WE?

The EDPS - a young and dynamic institution

The European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS), a young EU institution established in 2004, in Brussels, Belgium, is the independent data protection authority of the EU institutions and the advisor of the EU legislator on data protection matters. We strive to be an impartial centre of excellence in order to embed a strong data protection culture in the EU institutions and the legislation emanating from them. We also closely follow technological developments and try to anticipate their impact on the privacy of individuals. Our organisation employs about 120 staff members, most of whom are EU officials, but we also welcome Contract Agents and Seconded National Experts, working full-time or part-time.

The EDPS - a great place to work

We value a strong culture of respect, flat hierarchical structures and an open door policy to foster innovative ideas and a strong collaboration between colleagues. To ensure our staff's well-being and motivation, we believe that it is essential to create a healthy organisational climate and to strike a good work-life balance. To achieve this, we offer various flexible working arrangements, as well as learning and development opportunities, such as job-shadowing and training programmes.

WHO ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

Someone who

- fits in an informal and friendly yet professional working environment;
- appreciates working collaboratively with other colleagues on a variety of different projects;
- brings their creativity and initiative to the table;
- enjoys engaging constructively with stakeholders, based on our core values: integrity, impartiality, transparency and pragmatism.

ABOUT THE POSITION

Our job vacancy is in the HR Sector, which is part of the Human Resources, Budget and Administration Unit (HRBA). The unit is in charge of a number of horizontal processes aimed to ensure the financial, human and administrative resources and tools for the smooth functioning of the European Data Protection Supervisor. The unit also provides financial, human resources, and administrative support to the Secretariat of the European Data Protection Board (EDPB), which is administratively attached to the EDPS.

As HR Assistant, you will work under the guidance of the Head of Sector HR and your main responsibilities will include:

- In cooperation with the HR team, ensure the career management, including selections for permanent and non-permanent staff;
- Manage the recruitment of internal and external personnel (Officials, Contract agents, Temporary agents, interim agents) in SYSPER2;
- Manage arrivals and departures of staff members;
- Keep staff's personal files up to date;
- Collaborate in the monitoring of the contractual situation of the personnel;
- Act as one of the GECOs (time management contact persons) for the EDPS and EDPB staff and take part in the monitoring of the procedures in relation to personnel rights (leave, absences, etc);
- Provide assistance to staff members and line managers regarding working time management (TIM module in SYSPER);
- Act as contact person for medical files and relations with the European Commission medical service;
- Assist in drafting new and updating existing HR procedures;
- Advise and inform regularly staff and management regarding their individual rights and human resources issues via Intranet and other channels, including the production of manuals on internal procedures and the establishment of Help-desk services;
- Ensure that staff data are encoded correctly in Sysper by all relevant actors involved in HR workflows;
- Analyse staff data from Sysper and other databases to inform operational HRM decisions;
- Generate HR reports and prepare the bi-annual Staff Satisfaction Survey; analyse the results.

You may also be required to carry out additional tasks when necessary and in the interest of the service.

HOW TO APPLY?

Interested in this position? Please send to EDPS-selections@edps.europa.eu by 13/02/2024 at 12:00 midday (Brussels time):

- CV (preferably in Europass format) and cover letter detailing why you are suitable for this role;
- the completed application form;

Only duly completed applications submitted electronically within the deadline will be taken into consideration.

Candidates are strongly advised not to wait until the last day to submit their applications, since heavy internet traffic or internet connection issues could lead to difficulties in submission. The EDPS cannot be held responsible for any delay due to such difficulties.

OUR SELECTION PROCEDURE

All eligible applications will be scrutinised by a selection panel. Candidates whose applications best match the selection criteria will be invited for an interview during which the selection panel will assess each candidate's performance. In addition, a second interview or written tests may be carried out. At the EDPS we aim for all selection panels to have a gender-balanced composition.

To ensure the Selection Panel's independence, it is strictly forbidden for candidates to contact any of its members on any matter related to the selection procedure. All inquiries or correspondence must be exclusively conducted via the functional mailbox edps-selections@edps.europa.eu. Candidates may be disqualified at any stage of the selection procedure if they contact or attempt to contact a member of the Selection Board of the competition unless explicitly authorised.
